To all our Valued Customers:

We are excited to announce that Zentra Computer Technologies Inc. has acquired a substantial interest in ITVertigo Corp. Zentra (www.zentra.com) is a national leader in providing data center solutions including services and products from NetApp, Isilon, Extreme Networks, VMware, Cisco, and Sun Microsystems.

As a result, ITVertigo Corp will change its name to Zentra Express Inc. Zentra Express Inc. will continue to operate as a separate group continuing to provide organizations of all sizes with cost effective, quick fulfillment of 200,000 commodity IT products from over 1,000 manufacturers including APC, Cisco, HP, IBM, Lenovo, Microsoft and Xerox.

Our existing customers will benefit from Zentra's deep expertise in providing advanced solutions across Canada including backup and storage, server and desktop virtualization, security and internetworking solutions.

Together, Zentra and Zentra Express will provide one-stop-shopping from the desktop to the data centre and everything in between. We look forward to continuing to provide you with competitively priced products and the quick service you require.
